Social Justice Day Celebration

Birth Anniversary of Chhatrapati Rajarshi Shahu Maharaj

Date: 26 June 2025

Time: 7:30 PM

Venue: College Conference Room

1. Introduction

On the evening of 26 June 2025, our college commemorated Social Justice Day in honour of Chhatrapati Rajarshi Shahu Maharaj's birth anniversary. Organized under the joint aegis of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell, Equal Opportunity Cell, Marathi Vangmay Mandal, and the National Service Scheme (NSS), the programme sought to reaffirm our institution's commitment to equity, inclusive education, and social upliftment.

Dr. Mrs. S. K. Deshpande, In-Charge Principal, provided guidance and unwavering support throughout the planning and execution phases.

2. Organizing Team

- Prof. Dr. S. N. Ingale – Programme Organiser and Co-ordinator equal opportunity cell

- * Internal quality assurance Cell

- Equal Opportunity Cell

- Marathi Vangmay Mandal

- NSS Unit

The organising team worked in close collaboration, ensuring meticulous attention to protocol and content.

3. Dignitaries on the Dais

- Prof. V. V. Mulay – President of the Programme

- Prof. S. K. Athwale – Department of English

- Prof. Dr. Nirbhavne – Department of Commerce

- Prof. Mrs. C. Wins – NSS Coordinator

- * Mr. Uday Kulkarni – Convenor, Marathi Vangmay Mandal

Their presence underscored the event's significance and lent it academic gravitas.

4. Programme Proceedings

1. Formal Welcome and stage Coordination

Prof. Dr. S. N. Ingale officially opened the proceedings. He remarked:

“We gather this evening to reflect on Maharaj's pioneering vision—where education is not an exception, but a right for all citizens.”

2. Lamp Lighting and Floral Tribute

Prof. V. V. Mulay invoked the legacy of Shahu Maharaj by lighting the ceremonial lamp and laying a floral wreath, symbolising enlightenment and respect.

3. Documentary Screening

Librarian Mr. Uday Kulkarni presented a concise documentary on Chhatrapati Rajarshi Shahu Maharaj. He concluded:

“May his relentless pursuit of justice inspire us to break down barriers in our own communities.”

4. Faculty Speeches

a. Prof. S. K. Athwale:

“Maharaj’s reforms were radical in their time yet timeless in their relevance. He taught us that true leadership serves the most vulnerable first.”

b. Prof. Mrs. C. Wins:

“Empathy, action, and education must go hand in hand. Let us carry forward Maharaj’s torch by embedding justice in every outreach we undertake.”

5. Student Presentations

• Ms. Kalpana Bansode (TYBA)

Topic: “Shahu Maharaj’s Educational Reforms and Their Legacy”

Quote: “His model schools dismantled caste barriers long before legislation could catch up.”

• Ms. Sanchita Sali (TYBA)

Topic: “Contemporary Challenges to Social Equality”

Quote: “While laws have changed, attitudes remain. Our academic institutions must lead the shift in mindset.”

• Ms. Priyanka Naik (TYBA)

Topic: “Grassroots Movements Inspired by Maharaj’s Vision”

Quote: “Every rural literacy drive today echoes his belief in knowledge as power.”

6. Presidential Address

Prof. V. V. Mulay exhorted:

“This celebration is not mere ceremony. It is a call to action—for policy, practice, and pedagogy. Let us ensure that every classroom, every community centre, becomes a seat of justice.”

7. Vote of Thanks

Librarian Mr. Uday Kulkarni expressed gratitude:

“I extend heartfelt thanks to our dignitaries, speakers, students, and organisers. May tonight’s insights translate into tomorrow’s initiatives.”

5. Outcomes and Future Directions

- Strengthened resolve to integrate social justice themes into curricula and co-curricular activities.
- Commitment from NSS and the Equal Opportunity Cell to launch campus-community partnership projects.
- Proposal to host an annual intercollegiate symposium on equity and inclusion.

6. Conclusion

The Social Justice Day celebration successfully honoured Chhatrapati Rajarshi Shahu Maharaj’s vision, blending scholarly discourse, student engagement, and cultural homage. Under the stewardship of Dr. Mrs. S. K. Deshpande and the organising committee, the event reinforced our college’s role as an incubator of inclusive leadership and social reform.
