

NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME & STUDENTS

‘NOT ME BUT YOU’. This reflects the essence of democratic living and upholds the need for selfless service and appreciation of the other person’s point of view and also to show consideration for fellow human beings. It underlines that the welfare of an individual is ultimately dependent on the welfare of society on the whole. The National Service Scheme (NSS) in colleges is an Indian government sector public service program conducted by the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports of the Government of India. Popularly known as NSS, the scheme was launched in Mahatma Gandhi's centenary year in 1969.

Vikas College has started its N.S.S unit since its inception.

Patrolling during Ganapati Immersion (2022-23)

On the Ganesh Visarjan day (Thursday, 28 September 2023), Vikas College of Arts, Science and Commerce N.S.S. unit helped Mumbai police for traffic control and procession routes, helping manage the flow of vehicles and pedestrians. Their presence helped ensure a smoother and safer Ganesh visarjan process, reducing congestion and potential traffic-related issues. This collaborative effort between the Mumbai police and N.S.S. volunteers contributed significantly to the overall success and security of the event.

The volunteers created awareness about artificial ponds. They sensitized the people regarding the water pollution and urged them not to immerse the idols of Lord Ganesha in the river instead they guided the public how to use the artificial ponds for this purpose. NSS volunteers also told people about river pollution and its after effects. Students guided the people for not putting the green waste like flowers and garlands offered to Lord Ganesha and instead NSS volunteers collected it from people and put in the KALASH made for it. Many people praised the volunteers for their distinctive efforts.

Mumbai Police and the B.M.C staff also thanked the team for helping out in the work. Students too were happy and satisfied with the activity. Total 50 students participated with proper sanitization. It was handled by Program officer Prof. Vinayak Mulay Total 50 N.S.S. volunteers comprising of 27 boys and 23 girls were selected for this Patrolling during Ganapati Immersion.

Residential Camp (2022-2023)

Vikas College of Arts, Science & Commerce's N.S.S unit has gone for 7 days residential camp at village Vangani. Taluka- Ambernath, District- Thane. The duration of this camp was from 24th December to 30th December 2022.

This year total 100 volunteers comprising of 58 boys and 42 girls were selected for this residential camp. Another 02 non N.S.S. staff and 03 Teachers (03 males and 02 female) were also appointed to supervise these 100 volunteers during 07 days camp. There were separate tents, one for the boy's volunteers and second for girls volunteers and ladies staff members and third one gents staff members.

This year N.S.S. unit of our college was asked to create awareness about "SWACHTA ABHIYAN" among villagers and also performed a cleanliness drive with the help of Grampanchayat. The volunteers of our N.S.S. unit also performed a street play on the cleanliness.

Programme officer Mr. V.V. Mulay requested honorable Sarpanch to provide team of sweepers to help all our N.S.S. volunteers in this "SWACHA BHARAT MISSION or SWACHTA ABHIYAN".

Our N.S.S. unit had made preparations for community based programs such as rally, street plays etc. Welfare of village Vangani is not only the motto behind this N.S.S. camp taken by our N.S.S. units. This camp also helps personality development of each and every volunteer who has been given his participation such Camps everyone is awarded with special gift by God, but the person may not be aware of such qualities. And our N.S.S. camp helps every volunteer in finding out the hidden quality. So there were so many other programs organized by the supervisory staff members, such as campfire, lectures session by reputed personalities etc.

There was provision made for camp fire activities to give opportunity to volunteers their special skills in cultural activities. All the N.S.S. volunteers gave their active participation for these camp fire.

On, 28th December all the well-known personalities from the village visited to our camp site and on the same day honorable Shri. P.M. Raut sir, Secretary of Vidya Vikas Education Society also visited to campsite. On this occasion all these well-known personalities from the villages appreciated the Bandh constructed work done by all N.S.S. volunteers present at camp site. On this day special dinner was given to all the N.S.S. volunteers as an appreciation work by the villagers.

On 29th December after the completion of Bandh construction all the volunteers were happy for the given task completed but also there was little bit nervousness on every volunteers face. This was because during these seven days all the volunteers were came close to each other and feeling as if there family. There was only one thought in volunteer's mind that there should not be end of this camp, but it is the fact that time never stops for anybody.

So at the end we can confidently state as like past history of our N.S.S. unit this year also we had a successful camp. Our college staff who have brought success for this camp are programme officer prof. V.V. Mulay, Prof. C. Wins, Prof. J.N. Shimpi more along with N.S.S. leaders.
